Financial Aid Eligibility for La	te and Second	Start Courses
Timanolary na Englishity Tol. Ea
Register for Second Start/Late
The tuition/fees and bookstore charges for students who register for both 16-week courses and Second Start/Late class(es) that start after the census date of the regular semester will be paid by Financial Aid on the census date of the regular semester. If a student drops any Second Start/Late class(es) prior to the start of the course, he/she is responsible for repaying any financial aid used to cover the charges incurred for the class(es).
Register for Second Start after the Census Date of the Regular Semester:
Students who register for Second Start/Late classes only after the census of the regular semester will have their financial aid packaged according to the number of hours enrolled. Students who register for 16 week course(s) and Second Start or any classes that start after the census date of the regular semester will have their financial aid reassessed to accommodate the additional course hours for the Second Start/other course(s).
